

NAIDOC Week 2023

NAIDOC week this year was packed with some great activities celebrating Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture at the CLC. We were honoured to have Kaurna Elder Barry Buckskin at the CLC sharing his story, experiences and family's journey. Students were taught the art of traditional painting and were able to have a go at painting their own story. The students will continue to work on their pieces over the next few weeks so they can be displayed around the CLC. We also indulged in some traditional foods including kangaroo stew and chicken and lemon myrtle sausage rolls.

Coordinator's Recap

Term 2 has been another big one at the CLC!

The number of students completing SACE subjects is continuing to rise and we have three new exiting Stage 1 Integrating Learning subjects beginning next semester. Maddy will be teaching a new Nutritional Science class with an exploration into the basics of how the body operates in connection to food. Gracee will be bringing back her History of Cinema class looking at significant directors, technological developments, and how economic factors impact the movies. Last but not least, Owen will introduce a new subject called Criminology. This class will unpack what exactly constitutes a crime, applying social psychology theories to crime, and exploring criminal profiling.

We have again had another busy time for short courses this term. Over fifty CLC students completed some form of training including Barista, Hygiene and First Aid, Tourism, Business Documents and Business Commerce. It's great to see so many students gaining qualifications and achieving SACE credits along the way.

This term Baptist Care facilitated some fantastic activities to celebrate NAIDOC week. This included painting, cooking slow cooked Kangaroo as well as an amazing session with Barry Buckskin teaching us his story and his family's history. It was a fantastic way to celebrate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture.

The CLC also had some fun themed days throughout the term. Creative Hair Day had staff and students wear their hair in some interesting styles, Onesie and Oodie day was perfectly timed to get comfortable in this cold weather and our CLC Games was a great way to Celebrate the end of the term with some friendly competition.

Have a safe holiday!

See you in Term 3.

Conservation

This term, 10 students participated in Integrated Learning Conservation. Students conducted research into Australian wildlife and what they can do to help support our native animals. They then had an excursion to Gorge Wildlife Park where they had the opportunity to interact and feed the animals, as well as gain first-hand insight into breeding programs and wildlife parks.
